

ICDF NEWSFLASH

MAY 2022

Hi everyone

There is much excitement in the ICDF office with emails coming in from members who are finalising their plans to attend our ICDF conference in Sweden. The LOC are also hard at work with arrangements with Teachers and Delegates, ensuring that all is in order for our upcoming Sweden Conference 2022.

Along with the Conference excitement are our plans for our ICDF Dance Week starting on 30 May to 5 June 2022 when we will be shining the light on a few countries who have shared their videos to celebrate the “Goodness of God” at this time. Visit our Facebook page and Instagram to view these videos from Puerto Rico, Malaysia, Australia and more!! If you or your Dance Group do something special during this week, please send us your photos or videos so that we can share with all our members.

Our ICDF Dance Week culminates with our Pentecost Prayer Watch, facilitated by Jackie Young the ICDF Leader for the Movement in Prayer Network. You are invited to be part of the activities on the weekend of 4th - 5th June.

Message from the Network Leader:

As I considered Prayer Watch 2022, I thought back over the last couple of years which have been so difficult for many of us. We have faced losses and changes which have rocked our lives but Jesus hasn't changed. He is there beside us in every season - in the joy of summer sunshine and the grief and pain of bitter winter. Based on a song by Helen Yousaf (link below) I have outlined some simple activities for you to use individually or corporately to move in prayer for this year's Prayer Watch.

I would love to be able to share your movements and revelations from your encounters with God during Prayer Watch 2022 so please take photos and videos and write down anything the Lord gives you as you pray and, afterwards, send them to me at icdf.movementinprayer@gmail.com and I will put them together so we can all share and move from glory to glory.

With God's blessings,
Jackie Young

Suggested Activities for Prayer Watch 2022

1. "Allow God to search your heart." (Psalm 139:23) Spend a few minutes moving in silence or to gentle instrumental music just giving God time to speak. Let go of your worries and breathe in the Holy Spirit.
2. "There is grace for me." (Acts 11:23) Spend time asking God what situations, both personal and global, He is bringing to mind where He wants you to release His grace. Maybe use a staff to press into prayer or if you are with others you can move in unity.
3. "I choose to dance to the beat of heaven, I will not hold back." You can use drums as you move or maybe stamp to the rhythm. Declare breakthrough over the situations God has revealed to you.
4. "Joy welling up inside." (Nehemiah 8:10) Allow God to let joy and freedom flow as you release these situations to Him. Maybe use banners and ribbons as you celebrate.
5. "Going Glory to Glory." (Romans 15:13) Use the song by Helen Yousaf to worship God. During lockdown, my son Steven worked with Helen Yousaf to produce the piece linked below. I pray God will minister to you as you watch it. The words of Helen's song really spoke to me about how God can use even the messiest part of our lives for His glory - if we will surrender ourselves to him. If you have time you may like to choreograph your own dance to this song. <https://youtu.be/5G3S3ez75Os>

We look forward to receiving your creative expressions from the Dance Week as well as the Pentecost Prayer Watch.
