Breaking News

The Planning Team in Sweden are pleased to announce that the ICDF Conference will go ahead for 2022. To reach this decision has not been easy as Covid-19 has not gone away but, with borders starting to open up for international travel and knowing of the enthusiasm of many for the conference to be held next year, the wheels are now in motion.

Our thanks to the 2022 Conference Team and intercessors in Sweden for their hard work and dedication to planning and prayer throughout the uncertainties of the last few years. We thank them for laying foundations 'in faith' on which they can now build.
